

Is it Bullying?

Bullying

--	--	--	--

Teasing

--	--	--	--

Mean

--	--	--	--

Conflict

--	--	--	--

Is it Bullying?

Do these situations show bullying, teasing, mean, or conflict? Cut out the pictures below and glue them into the correct categories on the next page.

A student intentionally bumps into a classmate whenever they pass in the hallway and encourages other students to laugh.

Micah is known by his friends to be terrible at keeping track of his things. After losing his jacket again, his friend tells him, "We'll need to staple it to you after this!". Micah laughs and replies "Yes! But it might get hot in the summer!".

Girls in a high social status clique humiliate and repeatedly make fun of another student.

Sarah and Meg have a running joke where they hide a scary face picture for each other to find. They both have fun playing it and like the startle they get when they find the picture.

A group of girls sets up a fake social media page for another student with embarrassing photos and untrue statements and facts and shares the page with their classmates.

Laura doesn't want to be Julie's friend anymore. Julie hasn't been invited to a birthday party at Laura's house and rarely talks to her anymore. Julie's mom reports, "this situation has devastated Julie."

Jizzy is upset that the new boy is sitting in his seat, so he pushes his books off the table as he walks by. He apologizes the next day.

Best friends Matt and Jo are eating lunch. When Matt tries to open his chips, he pulls too hard and chips fly everywhere. Jo yells, "Woah, careful Hulk hands!". They both laugh and work together to clean up the chips.

A group of boys is playing HORSE at recess. Whenever someone tries to make a shot, the others shout "Miss! Miss! Not gunna happen!". Everyone is having fun and no one's feelings are hurt.

Beth shoves her friend in the heat of an argument.

Shane and Mark are arguing at recess over who should get to be captain for the kickball game.

A boy frequently has his gloves hidden or stolen.

Kyle asks to sit with Jim at lunch. Jim has just found out he failed his math test. He scowls and shouts "no!" and moves to eat alone.

Jessica accidentally drops and breaks Michelle's toy she brought from home. Michelle yells "You stupid jerk!" at Jessica.

Liz comes to school wearing the dress she knew Maria was planning to wear for school picture day. Maria says she's never speaking to Liz again. Liz says that Maria is being a selfish baby.

Tori had told Kate that she could have her dessert at lunch if Kate let Tori play with the jump rope at recess, but Tori forgot and ate her dessert before she remembered. Now Kate is upset and thinks Tori is a liar.